Free Icons Pack Crack + [Mac/Win]

This set of 16 freebie icons consists of 16 various images covering a wide range of categories: Home Page Uploader Text Editor My Favorites Folders My Photo E-mail My Social Network My Calendar My Documents My Friend I've been waiting for a set of icons just for this. Excellent. Well done. Sugar is a nice addition to the icons. It doesn't have to be used though. It's a nice touch. It's also nice that you have icons for OSX as well. wow. i just found this set. only 3.0mb are very impressive. they really stand out. also the icons are in great resolution. i'm usually not that much of an advocate of freebies but i have to say that these icons are great. i'll be using them and posting them on my site. not sure what the best way to do that would be but as an example, i got an ipod icon and i created an ipod flash widget. in my opinion, these are the best real icons around. i love that they have several different sizes and formats. one thing i'd like to request is to make a SVN version of this. that would be awesome. thanks! xennie 02-28-2008, 01:05 PM Thanks for the comment. I agree that the SVG version would be awesome. It is possible to convert the icons to SVG using Svgware's Icon Magic, but it is quite time consuming and it limits the number of icons you can pack into a package. There is a new version of Icon Magic that can do it quickly and efficiently - you can update your.zip package and download the new version. Better yet, your comment reminded me of an article I wrote when I first started building my own icon sets. It's called "How I Build Icon Sets". Here is a link to it: I agree that the SVG version would be awesome.
