However, security specialists warn that the reduction of Ransomware in the enterprise can also be an opportunity for less secure organizations to attack their own network infrastructure. "Ransomware is a digital epidemic that has one side effect, it gives people an easy way to [gain] access to the enterprise and steal," says Charlie Woods, CEO of CHEK Private Security. "The bad guys aren't just gonna stop. It's a very easy way to get inside." After the proliferation of Ransomware, a wave of rule-breaking and failures in the email infrastructure and various security product deployments has occurred, according to Woods. "With the proliferation of the Ransomware, we're seeing a lot of things broken in the email infrastructure that was only broken to the point that it's broken," he says. However, with the reduction 648931e174

Using auditory evoked potentials, we investigated the effect of retinal image motion on brainstem and cortex evoked responses to tones. We found an enhancement of the auditory evoked brainstem potential to tones presented during retinal image motion. In addition, the cortical response to tones presented during retinal image motion is enhanced. Since the cortex receives converging input from the brainstem and visual system, the enhanced cortical response to retinal image motion can be interpreted in the light of sensory gating in the auditory system.HONG KONG -- Matt Damon and Chinese actress and singer Han Geng were among the more than 1,200 people arrested in Hong Kong over the weekend as anti-government protests rocked the territory and triggered violent clashes. The Hollywood star was among the first arrested on Friday after thousands of protesters swarmed into a shopping mall and clashed with police in the city's Mong Kok district. In another section of the city's Admiralty district, a stream of hundreds of protesters, some in masks and black, ambled past demonstrators holding "I Love Hong Kong" posters and flags in support of the movement. Damon was arrested with the two young men at the University Circle mall, according to the police. He was released a short time later. Damon
