(freedownload for windows 7) - CODEX.HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL: Shenendehowa edges Mohawk Valley Shenendehowa rose to 7-4 with its first win over the season when it beat Mohawk Valley, 74-66, Tuesday. The Longhorns led 16-4 after the first quarter and held off Mohawk Valley's comeback to claim the win, which came in front of 2,197 at the Poultney-Elmore Fieldhouse. "We've got a lot of new guys out there," said Shenendehowa head coach Gary Colombo. "But the guys who are making the most of their minutes are having fun, which is great." The Longhorns only shot 6-of-22 from the field (27 percent). Colombo said the key to the victory was taking care of the ball, especially in the first half. "We played a little too fast," he said. "Defensively we need to play a little more in control. We have to make decisions and be aggressive." The Longhorns also needed to play more soundly on the boards, as they went 16-of-46 (34 percent). In an effort to shore up its rebounding, Colombo rotated his players out on the court. Shenendehowa had five players score in double figures, led by the four Tyler Berns, who scored 14 points, and Steven Brennan, who finished with 13. Berns and Brennan each shot 5-of-6 from the field. "We missed some shots in the first half," said Berns. "In the second half, we came together as a unit." The victory snapped a six-game losing streak for Shenendehowa. The Longhorns had suffered losses to Starrett and Burlington. "We lost on the road and it was tough," said Colombo. "But we came out with a win. It's encouraging to get
